

the size of New York City. This is truly the "reddest" part of Jordan, colored by iron oxide, region of the country, it is dominated by open woodlands that account for a significant part of lordan's forested area, which does not and by far the most dramatic in terms of landscape.

of waterfalls.

